4.1 Management by Members
(a) The business and affairs of the Company shall be controlled by and managed by the Class A Members as follows: (i) each Class A Member, without the joinder of any other Class A Members, shall have the power and authority, on behalf of the Company, to take any action and to do anything and everything they deem necessary or appropriate to carry on the business of the Company, (ii) the Class A Members shall have full, exclusive and complete discretion in the management and control of the Company, (iii) all decisions relating to the business and affairs of the Company shall be made by, and all action proposed to be taken by or on behalf of the Company, shall be taken by, the Class A Members and (iv) each Class A Member, without the joinder of any other Class A Members, shall have full power and authority to execute all documents and take all other actions on behalf of the Company and thereby bind the Company

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Agreement to the contrary: none of the actions described in the foregoing clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 4.1(a), may be taken by any individual Class A Member on behalf of the Company without first obtaining the approval by a Super-Majority vote of the Class A Members as required in this Agreement.

(b) The implementation of any decisions properly made by the Class A Members, including the execution and delivery of all documents, may be through any Person selected by a Super-Majority of the Class A Members (including any Class A Member). All approvals and consents required or permitted herein may be prospective or retroactive.

(c) The Class A Members are, to the extent of their rights and powers set forth in this Agreement, agents of the Company for the purpose of the Company's business, and all actions of the Class A Members taken in accordance with such rights and powers shall bind the Company.

4.2 Agents
Each Class A Member may engage on behalf of, and at the expense of, the Company, such Persons as the Class A Member shall deem advisable for the conduct and operation of the business and affairs of the Company, including, without limitation, leasing, rental and sales agents and brokers, mortgage bankers, securities brokers and dealers, credit enhancers, lawyers, accountants, architects, engineers, consultants, contractors and purveyors of other services or materials for the Company on such terms and for such compensation or costs as the Class A Member shall determine.

(a) The day-to-day operational management of the Company may be exercised by such officers of the Company as may be appointed from time to time in accordance with this Section 4.3 (the "Officers"). The Class A Members, by a Super-Majority vote, may appoint such Officers as they may determine from time to time. The Officers, subject to the direction and control of the Class A Members, shall do all things and take all actions necessary to run the business of the Company. Each Officer shall have the powers and duties as may be prescribed to him or her by a Super-Majority of the Class A Members and, to the extent not so prescribed, as generally pertain to their respective offices. Each Officer shall hold office at the discretion of a Super-Majority of the Class A Members. Each Officer shall serve until the earlier of his or her death, resignation or removal, and any Officer may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a Super-Majority of the Class A Members. Any vacancy in any office shall also be filled by a Super-Majority of the Class A Members. Any Officer may resign at any time by delivering his or her written resignation to the Class A Members.

(b) The Company may employ such employees as the Officers of the Company deem reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Company as set forth in Section 1.3.

SECTION 5: LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 Liability to the Company
Neither any Member or Officer shall be liable to the Company in damages for any action that such Person takes or fails to take in such capacity, unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that such action or failure to act was undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the Company or with reckless disregard for the best interests of the Company.

5.2 Liability to Others
The debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company (whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise) are solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and neither the Members, nor the Officers, shall be liable therefor solely by reason of being a member of the Company or acting as a managing member or an officer of the Company. No failure of the Company to observe any corporate or other formality or requirement relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under this Agreement or the LLC Law shall be grounds for imposing liability on the Members or any Officer (or any member or other holder of an equity interest in a Member or any director, manager, board observer, officer or employee of any of the foregoing or any of their affiliates) for any debt, obligation or liability of the Company.

5.3 Right to Indemnification
Each Person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a “Proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he, she or it is or was a Member, an Officer, or an officer, manager or member of a Member in its capacity as Member of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, manager or officer of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (an “Indemnitee”), whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as an equity holder, manager, director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as an equity holder, manager, director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company, to the fullest extent permitted or required by the LLC Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits broader indemnification rights than such law permitted prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended and as may be further amended from time to time (“ERISA”), or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 5.6 with respect to Proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Company shall indemnify any such Indemnitee in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such Indemnitee only if such Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Class A Members.

5.4 Right to Advancement of Expenses

The right to indemnification conferred in Section 5 shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in defending any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition (an "Advancement of Expenses"); provided, however, that if so required by the LLC Law, an Advancement of Expenses incurred by an Indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of an undertaking (an "Undertaking"), by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (a "Final Adjudication") that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 5.4 or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses conferred in Section 5.3 and this Section 5.4 shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a Member, Officer, or other equity holder, manager, director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

5.5 Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit

If a claim under Section 5.3 or 5.4 is not paid in full by the Company within 60 calendar days after a written claim has been received by the Company, except in the case of a claim for an Advancement of Expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 calendar days, the Indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (a) any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to an Advancement of Expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (b) any suit brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the Company shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a Final Adjudication that, the Indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the LLC Law. Neither the failure of the Company (including a Member or independent legal counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the Indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the Indemnitee has met any applicable standard of conduct set forth in the LLC Law, nor an actual determination by the Company (including a Member or independent legal counsel) that the Indemnitee has not met any such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the Indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an Advancement of Expenses hereunder, or brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the burden of proving that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified or to such Advancement of Expenses, under this Section 5 or otherwise, shall be on the Company.

5.6 Non-Exclusivity of Rights
The rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses conferred in this Section 5 shall not be exclusive of any other right which any Person may have or hereafter acquire under any law, the Articles of Organization, this Agreement, any agreement, any action by the Members or otherwise.

5.7 Insurance
The Company may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Person who is or was serving as a Member, the Member's managers, officers or members, an Officer, or an employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, manager, officer, employee or agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such expense, liability or loss under this Section 5.

5.8 Indemnification of Employees and Agents
The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by a Super-Majority of the Class A Members, grant rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses to any employee or agent of the Company (other than the Indemnitees) to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Section 5 with respect to the indemnification and Advancement of Expenses of the Indemnitees. For purposes of this Section 5.9, an "employee" or "agent" of the Company (other than an Indemnitee) includes any Person (a) who is or was an employee or agent of the Company, or (b) who is or was serving at the request of the Company as an employee or agent of another foreign or domestic limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan.

5.9 Repeal or Modification
Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Section 5 shall not adversely affect any right of indemnification or limitation of liability of an Indemnitee, employee or agent of the Company relating to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

5.10 Savings Clause
If this Section 5 or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnitee or any other Person indemnified pursuant to this Section 5 as to all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Person in connection with any Proceeding to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Section 5 that shall not have been invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 6: BOOKS AND RECORDS; FISCAL YEAR

6.1 Books and Records

The Company shall keep adequate books and records, setting forth a true and accurate account of all transactions and other matters arising out of and in connection with the conduct of the Company's business, which books and records shall be otherwise kept in accordance with the provisions of the LLC Law.

6.2 Fiscal Year
The fiscal year of the Company shall be determined by the Class A Members.

SECTION 7: TRANSFERS OR PLEDGES OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST; BUY-SELL RIGHTS

7.1 No Transfer or Pledge of Membership Interest
Except as set forth in Section 7.2, the Members shall not, without the prior written consent of a Super-Majority of the Class A Members, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, transfer, pledge, assign, donate, create or grant a security interest in or lien upon, encumber, give, place in trust (voting or other) or otherwise dispose (collectively, "Transfer") of, all or any portion of his or its Membership Interest.

7.2 Permitted Transfers
Upon compliance with the provisions of Section 7.3, but subject to and without limitation of the provisions of Section 7.4, any Member may transfer all of its Membership Interest to (a) a trust whereby the sole beneficiaries are the Member, the Member's spouse and/or the Member's children and the sole acting trustee of the trust is the Member (with the understanding that when the Member is no longer the sole acting trustee this may be an unauthorized transfer thereafter), or upon Member's death, the Member's spouse or children; provided, that such Member provides prior written notice to the Company of such transfer, or (b) by will, upon a Member's death, to the Member's spouse and/or the Member's children; provided, that such Member provides prior written notice to the Company of such designation in his will.

7.3 Procedure for Admission
Any transfers of a Membership Interest pursuant to Section 7.2 above shall be made only in compliance with the provisions of this Section 7.3.

(a) General. No Person will have title to any interest in the Company until he (i) has executed and delivered all documents deemed appropriate by the other Members to reflect his admission to the Company and his agreement to be bound by this Agreement and, to the extent applicable to the transferred Membership Interest, any other agreement or instrument to which the transferor and any Member are parties, and (ii) has paid all expenses connected with his admission to the Company. Any purported transfer or encumbrance of a Membership Interest will be ineffective until the transferor and his transferee furnish to the Company the instruments and assurances the Members may request, including without limitation, if requested, an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company or its legal counsel that the Membership Interest being transferred has been registered or is exempt from registration or qualification under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state securities laws. No transfer or encumbrance will be effective if it would result in the "termination" of the Company under Section 708 of the Code, unless a Super-Majority of the Class A Members gives its prior written consent to the transfer or encumbrance.

(b) Effect of Transfers. Upon an effective transfer of ownership of all or any part of a Member's Membership interest, the transferee of the Membership Interest, if the transferee is not already a Member of the same class, will be admitted to the Company as a Member of that class or, if the transferee is already a Member of the same class, will continue as a Member of that class with an additional Membership Interest reflecting the transfer.

7.4 Effect of Attempted Transfer in Violation of this Agreement
Any attempted Transfer of any Membership Interest in breach of this Agreement shall be null and void and of no effect whatever.

7.5 Purchase Option Upon Divorce
Upon the dissolution of the marriage of any married Member, if such Member enters into a property settlement agreement or any court issues an interlocutory decree or other order, the terms of which transfer or award any Membership Interest to the Member's spouse, whether as a confirmation or disposition of the spouse's rights under applicable community property, quasi-community property or similar state law, such Member shall have the option and right (the "Purchase Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase all of the Membership Interests awarded to its spouse for a purchase price as determined in accordance with Section 7.8, by providing notice to the spouse of such election (the "Purchase Notice"). The closing of such purchase shall occur in accordance with Section 7.7.

7.6 Buy-Sell Rights
In the event a Member commits any of the following actions or inactions (such Member being the "Subject Member"):

(a) A Transfer that is in violation of this Section 7;

(b) Dissolve or liquidate, in whole or in part, make an assignment for the benefit of any creditor, file or otherwise initiate a petition in bankruptcy, petition or apply to any tribunal for the appointment of a custodian, receiver or any trustee for it or for any of its assets, commence any proceeding under any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation law or statute of any jurisdiction, whether now or hereinafter in effect, consent or acquiesce in the filing of (or invoke or cause any person to file) any such petition, application or proceeding, or taking possession by a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, or admit its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due or authorize any of the foregoing to be done or taken on behalf of itself or consent to or acquiesce in (A) the filing or other initiation of an involuntary petition for relief against the Member under any Bankruptcy Laws or (B) the appointment of any trustee, receiver, conservator, assignee, sequestrator, custodian, liquidator (or other similar official) for the Member or any of its assets;

(c) Any act or omission that constitutes fraud;

(d) Theft or embezzlement of money or property of the Company, or of any Member or any of the Company's clients or customers;

(f) Conviction of a felony, the commission of any heinous acts, or the commission of any other acts involving moral turpitude or wrongdoing (whether done in connection with any business activity of the Company or otherwise) that has resulted in injury to the reputation of the Company or its clients or customers;

(g) receipt of a Bona Fide Offer to purchase all, but not less than all, of such Subject Member's Membership Interest that the Member desires to accept; or

(h) the dissolution of marriage of any married Member and such Member enters into a property settlement agreement or any court issues an interlocutory decree or other order, the terms of which transfer or award any Membership Interest to the Member's spouse, whether as a confirmation or disposition of the spouse's rights under applicable community property, quasi-community property or similar state law, and such Member declines or fails to exercise its purchase option under Section 7.5 hereof;

then at any time within thirty (30) days after the later the occurrence of such event or the Company becomes aware of the occurrence of such event, the Company, and then, if the Company, based upon the decision of a Super-Majority of the Members other than the Subject Member, elect not to exercise its rights under this Section 7.6, any of the Members other than the Subject Member (as applicable, the "Buy-Sell Right Holder"), within thirty (30) days the Company election or deemed election not to exercise its rights under this Section 7.6, shall have the option and right (the "Buy-Sell Right"), but not the obligation, to require the Subject Member to sell all of Subject Member's Membership Interests (the "Buy-Sell Interest") for a purchase price as determined in accordance with Section 7.7, by providing notice to the Subject Member thereof (the "Buy –Sell Notice"). If more than one Member wishes to exercise the Buy-Sell Right (after the Company has declined its right), each Member's Buy-Sell Right shall be limited to the proportion to their respective Percentage Interest unless all of those Members that wish to exercise their Buy-Sell Right mutually agree upon some other proportion. Any Membership Interest of a Subject Member not purchased pursuant to this Section 7.6 shall continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

7.7 Closing of Sale

At the Closing, (i) the Subject Member (or spouse) shall deliver to the applicable Buy-Sell Right Holder (or Member), an assignment of the applicable Buy-Sell Interest

(Membership Interest), duly executed by the Subject Member (spouse), and solely with respect to a purchase pursuant to Section 7.6, containing the representations and warranties set forth below, (ii) the applicable Buy-Sell Right Holder (Member), shall pay the purchase price to the Subject Member (spouse) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Subject Member (spouse), (iii) the Members shall waive and any all transfer restrictions set forth in this Agreement with respect to the Buy-Sell Right Holder's purchase of the Buy-Sell Interest pursuant to Section 7.6 (but not with respect to any future Transfer), and (iv) solely with respect to a transaction pursuant to Section 7.6, the Subject Member shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Buy-Sell Right Holder from any liabilities first arising prior to the Closing. The representations and warranties to be made by the Subject Member in connection with the sale of the Buy-Sell Interest pursuant to Section 7.6 shall be limited to representations and warranties regarding (I) good title to the applicable Buy-Sell Interest, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances, (II) the Subject Member's authorization and/or capacity to sell the applicable Buy-Sell Interest, and (III) enforceability and binding effect of the assignment containing such representations and warranties.
